PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2019-present    Assistant Professor
                    Department of Linguistics, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
- 2017-2019     Carolina Postdoctoral Program for Faculty Diversity Fellow
                    Department of Linguistics, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
- 2016-2017     Term Assistant Professor in Linguistics
                    Department of English, George Mason University

Other academic affiliations

- Fall 2021       Visiting Scholar
                    Department of Linguistics, University of California Davis

EDUCATION

- 2012-2016     Ph.D. in linguistics, University of Southern California
                    Dissertation: Syntax-prosody interactions in the clausal domain: Head movement and Coalescence (committee chair: Andrew Simpson)
- 2010-2012     M.A. in linguistics, University of Southern California
                    Thesis: On classes of French bare nouns and the lower nominal domain
- 2006-2010     B.A. in linguistics with honors, Haverford College (major at Swarthmore)
                    Thesis: A long-distance dependency analysis of Mandarin bei-passives in LFG
- 2009           Coursework in linguistics at l'Université Paris Diderot – Paris VII
